

journey to becoming a nurse

on my journey to becoming a nurse will be very interesting and fun at the same time because as Nowela was growing she really liked watching movies that included nurses being in the movies and Nowela liked playing games with her friends that included acting like a nurse or doctor and when Nowela is home and somebody in her family gets sick or gets hurt Nowela would be the one who takes care care of them and she would make sure there getting while and that they are taking there medicine. Nowela wants be nurse because almost every one in her family really wants be involved in medical stuff because my grandma was a nurse and my grandpa was a doctor so we com from a family of doctors and nurses. but for Nowela to reach this goal she might have to do about four to five years of college and Nowela may have to be able to get a associate degree and Nowela must be able to get a masters degree she must also pass the NCLEX-PN. If Nowela gets all of those requirements she wont only be a licensed practical nurse but she will also be a registered nurse. Nowela says this journey wont be easy but i will do the best i can every single day also this journey will long and hard and she has to have in her mind to never give up and keep doing her best every step of way even when she faces challenges. Nowela also panes on going to high school and planning on taking classes that will help to become a nurse like heath class and other class that would lest help nowela know what she is doing when she gets to high school

THE INTERVIEW

nowela interviewed her mom and asked her why it was important for her to become a nurse she said it was important because when she was younger all she ever wanted to do was become a nurse but she wasn't able to because when she was growing up she didn't have people to take her to school and give her the education she needed in order for her to become a nurse. She said when she was younger her parents died when she was only eight years old and it was hard for her to get an education because she had to go and live with her dads brother and he didn't have enough money to pay for her schooling so she just quite school and gave up her dream on becoming a nurse she said she would do anything to go back to school and get her education and become a nurse like she always wanted to be . Then Nowela asked her mom then why wont she just go back to school here in america and just learn about nursing and finish school and become a nurse she said she would if she wanted to but now its to late because now she has lots of responsibility and she doesn't know if she would be able to work go school and have a place to keep her kids for when he goes to work and school she said that would be very had for her.then Nowela asked her so now your giving up your dream on becoming a nurse she said no i plan on going back to school as soon as all of my kids are all grown and when they are able to take care of them self and she said that here in america people say it never to late to go back to school so she still has her life to become a nurse

About Nowela's family

'some things about Nowela family is that she was born in Africa and Nowela came to America when she was only 1-2 years old at lest that's what she thinks. And her family have lived in a lots of places like when Nowela's family first came to the united states they lived in Portland Maine and lived there for a year and her family deiced to go and live in Texas Amarillo Nowela and her family got really use to living in Texas they meant lots of people there and they also made lots of friends there but in Texas there wasn't that many jobs there and her parents where looking for jobs so nowela's family lived in texas for about 2 years then nowela's family moved to Iowa because they heard there is lots of jobs in Iowa so they moved to Iowa and they lived in cider rapids Iowa for about 4 years then her family decided they wanted to live in Iowa city and nowela and her family have been living in Iowa city for 1 year now so nowelas family have been living in Iowa for five years this year nowela started south east junior high this year and it has been very had for her because she was use to having the people she grew up with for four years with her and she never felt like nobody knows her. here at south east junior high there is new ways on how they teach and every thing is so different form what they taught her at Roosevelt middle school. when i first came to south east i thought it would be easy and i would fit in very whale with the students and i would be easy for me to get my work done when she started coming more and more she realize that she can never go back to the way things where at Roosevelt middle school. but she kept on telling her self i wont be long until summer comes around so you just hang in there and don't give up on what ever you do and every thing that you do to need to work your hardest on everything no matter how tough it might be nowela really wishes she could go back to Roosevelt middle school but she cant because she ways saying sometimes things happen for a reason. in nowelas family she has three little sisters and one little brother and she also lives with her parent and she has family's from all over the state and she is happy to have them
